SHIFT IN INTERNATIONAL RACQUETBALL TOUR LEADERSHIP

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – [Washington, MO] The International Racquetball Tour Board of Directors would like to notify our fans and followers that they have accepted John Scott’s resignation as CEO of the IRT, effective immediately.

The board wishes to thank John for his years of service to the Tour, and to racquetball as a sport. We ask that our fans join us in wishing John well in his future endeavors, and a speedy and full recovery. In the interim, the Board’s Chairman, Mike Grisz, will be taking on the role as acting-CEO.

Mike Grisz is a recently-retired individual tax and investment advisor, and has been involved in the sport in a leadership role for a number of years. He currently serves as the President of the Texas Racquetball Association, the Secretary of the National Masters Racquetball Association, and on the Board of the Commonwealth of Virginia Racquetball Association. He has also previously served as a tournament director for numerous state and national events.

Mike has been Chairman of the Board of the IRT since October 2018, and continues to strive to serve our organization in a way that will shape our future, and empower the sport to grow all over the globe.
